KARBÓN
COLLECTION

Materials for this collection: wire-brushed charred solid ash, three steel finishes, premium LeBravo Italian leather, and barro negro each meticulously chosen for durability and timeless elegance.

C3N Coffee Table

Constructed with precision from wire-brushed charred solid ash cubic rods, the C3N table showcases a captivating architectural design that draws the eye. Enhanced by Alfonso's handcrafted black clay tiles and a smoked glass top, it's a modern masterpiece that blends form and function, making it the perfect centerpiece for your living room's aesthetic.

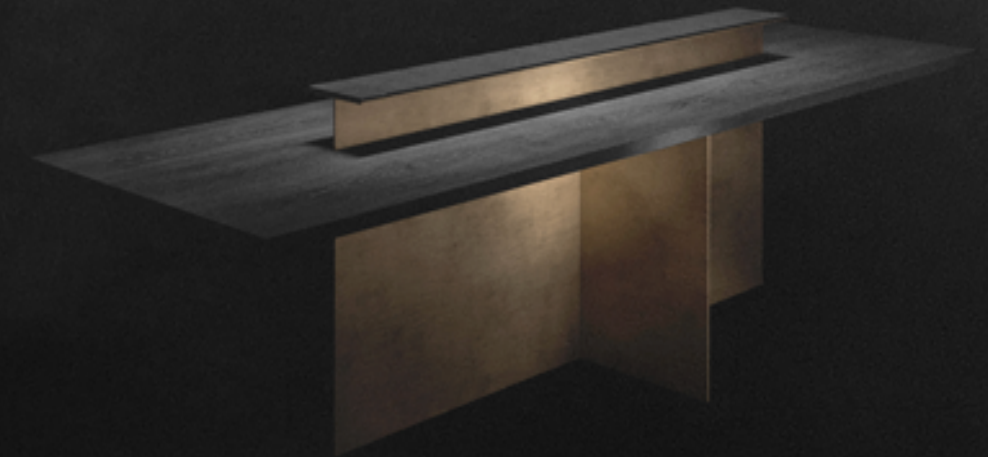

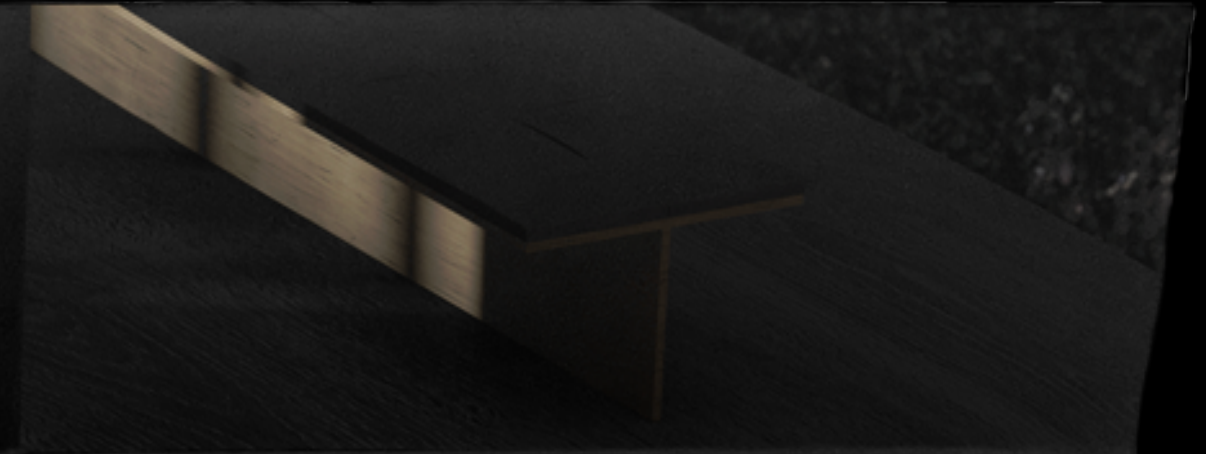

Introducing the C3N table: a fusion of modern design and natural elegance—a captivating centerpiece for your home's story.

Drawing from the influence of Mexican artisanal techniques and Italian design principles, the bench's unique architectural structure features wood slabs intricately joined by a continuous aged brass rod, ensuring both strength and visual appeal.

Crafted using the ancient shou sugi ban technique, its captivating blackened finish harmonizes with aged brass accents, creating a stunning visual contrast.

CooH Bench

C6H6 Dining Table

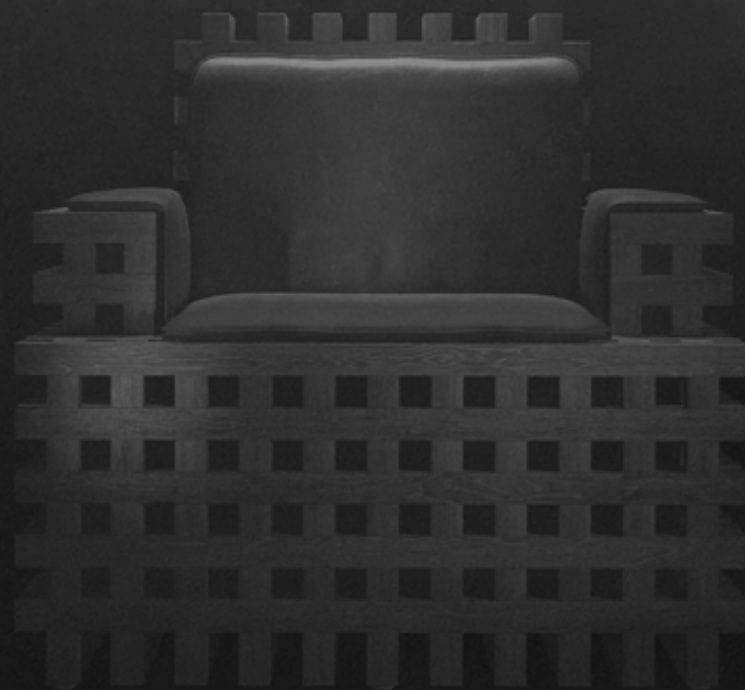

Elevate your dining experience with the C6H6 Dining Table. Crafted from wire-brushed charred solid ash, its aged brass-finished cross steel structure seamlessly blends with a handcrafted black clay tile from Alfonso's renowned "Raices Black Collection," infusing artistry into your space. As a captivating centerpiece for gatherings, it reflects your discerning style, enhancing any home with its exquisite design.

Featuring a 1.5" thick solid wood slab charred to a rich black hue, this table exudes modern sophistication.

C20 Dining Chair

The C20 Dining Chair, transforms your space into a luxurious haven of refinement. Its minimalist design embodies a unique brutalist aesthetic, distinguishing it from all others. With a fusion of brass steel and gracefully angled backrest, it transcends the ordinary, crafting an unparalleled dining atmosphere that captivates the senses.

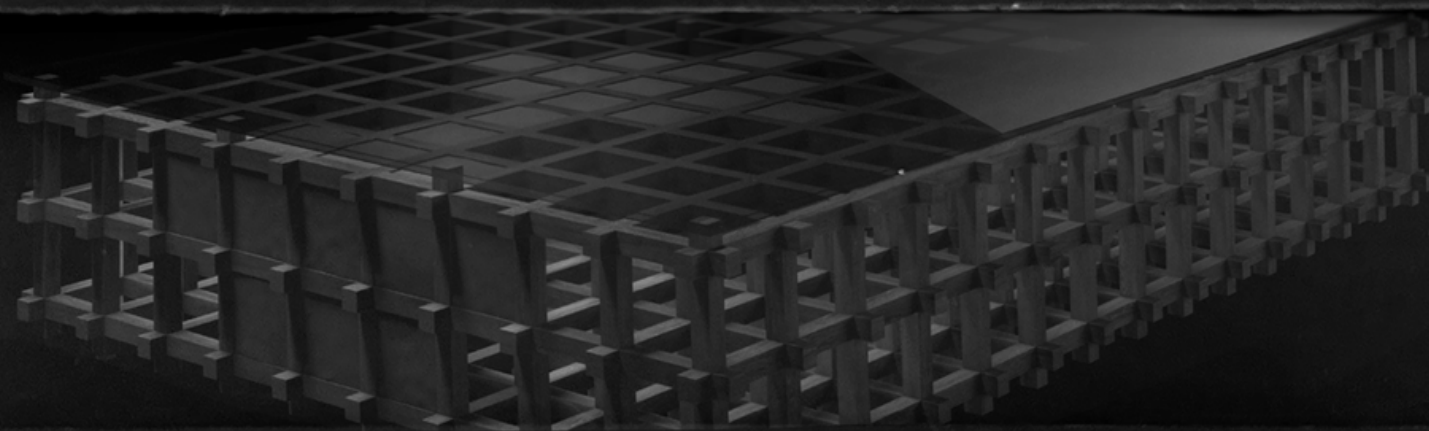

CoC Lounge Chair

Made from wire-brushed charred solid ash, this lounge chair exudes a timeless allure. The seat and backrest are wrapped in premium soft Lebravo leather from Italy, offering both luxurious comfort and sophistication. Aged brass buckles secure these elements, adding an additional layer of refinement to the piece.

CH4 Counter Stool

The CH4 stool features an elevated seat height and reduced backrest blending into modern spaces and creating a sleek ambiance. The distinctive pedestal-like base support stands as a testament to innovation, while the minimalist footrest adds a touch of contemporary flair.
